

WAYS TO ESTABLISH YOUR LEGACY TODAY

The Song Room brightens the future for young people across Australia through impactful arts learning programs delivered in partnership with schools and communities. We believe that every child deserves the best possible start in life - beginning with access to the arts at school to enhance their wellbeing, community involvement, and education. A gift in your will offers meaningful support that will help The Song Room to build equitable opportunities for young people in Australia well into the future.

Types of Gifts to Consider

In making a gift in your will, we strongly suggest you seek advice from a solicitor, and consult with your family and loved ones. In doing so, please consider a gift to The Song Room.

There are several types of options to consider when you decide to leave a gift to The Song Room in your will. These can include:

- Specific bequest: A specific sum of money, or a nominated asset like a house, musical instrument, shares, or jewellery.
- A percentage: A nominated percentage of your Estate.
- Residual: The balance of your estate after personal commitments have been made, and all other gifts distributed.

Suggested Wording to Consider

Depending on your personal preferences and situation, the following wording can be used when making a gift in your will.

"I give and bequeath The Song Room Limited, PO Box 243, Prahran, VIC, 3181 (ABN 68 790 325 760)...

- a) The sum of $ _____
- b) _____% percentage of my (estate / asset)
- c) The remainder of my estate, after my personal commitments have been made and all other gifts distributed.

... to be used for the general purposes of the Company at the discretion of its Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer."
